

Dear Texas Children's Austin Talent Network,

Halloween was a thrilling treat for our Austin team members! The October Austin Gathering brought them together to celebrate the spirit of the season and our progress toward the opening of Texas Children's Hospital - North Austin. From fang-tastic updates to an introduction to one of our Austin all-stars, Angela Zamora, we've got it all in this spirited newsletter.

OPPORTUNITIES AWAIT YOU

Whether you're a seasoned professional or a newcomer to the field, our dedicated team of healthcare experts is committed to delivering world-class care to children and women in Austin. With over 200 job openings in Austin, spanning a variety of departments and specialties, your journey toward a fulfilling career at Texas Children's begins at TexasChildrensPeople.org.

But why stop there? We encourage you to connect exceptional talents in your personal network with us as well. Even those new or in the process of joining the Texas Children's family have the opportunity to participate in our employee referral program – Everyone is A Recruiter Now (E.A.R.N.). #### AUSTIN ALL-STAR: ANGELA ZAMORA

We're thrilled to introduce you to Angela Zamora, Assistant Director, Ambulatory, at Texas Children's Hospital – North Austin. Angela's passion for our mission, unwavering dedication as a 13-year employee of Texas Children's, and supportive leadership style make her a shining star on our expanding Texas Children's Austin team.

Angela knows that our North Austin Campus is about to revolutionize the healthcare landscape in Austin, and she's excited to bring Texas Children's renowned quality of care to the Central Texas area. She believes that no obstacle is too big to overcome when it comes to delivering care with purpose, making each patient feel valued.

But it's not just about work for Angela; she's found a deep connection to Austin's vibrant lifestyle. From savoring homemade tortillas and mouthwatering BBQ to enjoying the city's live music, hiking trails, and diverse culture, she truly appreciates the unique charm of this incredible city.

Angela believes in nurturing leaders within her team, empowering each individual to bring their unique strengths to the table. As she and her team gear up for the grand opening in February 2024, Angela's top priorities are positivity and flexibility. Texas Children's North Austin Campus will be a game-changer, connecting patients with top-notch subspecialties and she hopes YOU will be a part of our dynamic team.
